

RICHARD SKIPPER

Celebrates

*EVERYTHING YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT
(but were afraid to ask)*

A One-Night-Only, Audience-Driven Theatrical Celebration. This is not your typical cabaret. In Everything You've Always Wanted to Know... veteran entertainer and Broadway historian Richard Skipper throws away the script — and puts the spotlight squarely on the audience.

This completely unscripted evening is built around questions submitted by the audience before and during the show. Richard responds in real time, weaving in stories from his 46-year career in entertainment, personal anecdotes, and carefully chosen musical numbers that serve as emotional “buffers” throughout the performance.

No two shows are the same. Each performance is a live memoir in motion — joyful, poignant, and full of surprise.

Duration: 75-90 min

Audience: Ideal for all ages

Format: Intimate staging; piano/accompanist required; Optional talkback or audience Q&A post-show
